

How to complete Peer Reviews in Canvas

You are required to peer review/evaluate 2 online presentations. In order to complete the peer review you must first have submitted your recorded presentation to the assignment dropbox. Peer review will only be available after the due date.

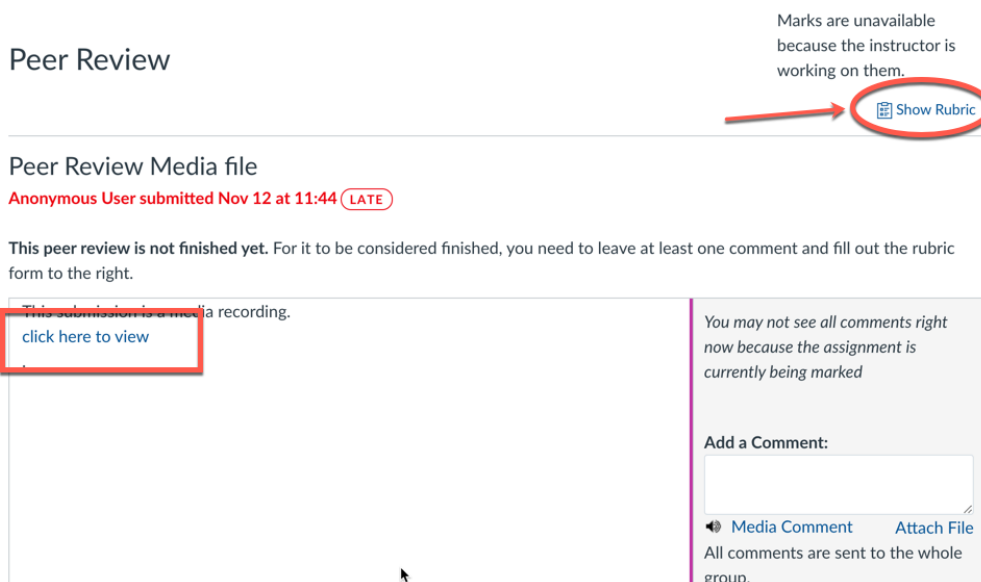

Once the due date has passed, you can locate your assigned reviews from either the To Do list on the canvas site homepage or you can go to the assignment dropbox where you submitted your presentation.

The screenshot shows the Canvas interface. On the left, the 'To Do' list is highlighted with a red box, showing two items: 'Peer Review for Peer Review...' with a red arrow pointing to it. On the right, the 'Submission' section shows 'Submitted!' with a checkmark and the date 'Oct 3 at 15:52'. Below this, 'Assigned Peer Reviews' are listed as 'Anonymous User' and 'Anonymous User', both circled in red. A note states: 'You may not see all comments right now because the assignment is currently being marked.'

We are using anonymous peer reviewing – you will of course know from the video presentation who they are, but they will not know who you are.

Select the first peer to review by clicking on one of the Anonymous User links. The following screen will display showing the submitted video – click here to view media file

When you have finished watching the presentation please add a your comment and complete the rubric by selecting Show Rubric.

Warning: if you wish to complete the review at a later time, the back button on your browser window will not work, you will need to use the 'breadcrumb' link at the top

To complete the rubric you select the criteria descriptor that you think the presentation meets. You will have to use both the vertical and horizontal scroll bars to view and complete the rubric. When finished select Save Comment.

Note: you only have one opportunity to complete the rubric – as soon as you select Save Comment the rubric is saved and you will not be able to edit it.

The screenshot shows a rubric table with two rows: 'Comprehension' and 'Overall quality'. Each row has three columns for different score levels: 5 pts (Exceptional), 4 pts (Above average), and 3 pts (Average). The '5 pts Exceptional' cell for 'Comprehension' is highlighted in green and circled in red. Below the table, a 'Save Comment' button is circled in red. A red arrow points to the horizontal scroll bar at the bottom of the table.

	5 pts Exceptional Presented a concise summary of the topic with all questions addressed.	4 pts Above average Presented a clear summary of the topic with most questions answered.	3 pts Average Presented a good summary of the topic with some questions unaddressed.
Comprehension
Overall quality	5 pts Exceptional A powerful, compelling and memorable presentation in terms of content, style and format.	4 pts Above average Generally good, well thought out and delivered presentation.	3 pts Average Generally well-delivered, persuasive presentation.

Once you have completed the rubric ignore this message, it does not disappear

This peer review is not finished yet. For it to be considered finished, you need to leave at least one comment and fill out the rubric form to the right.

The screenshot shows the peer review submission page. On the left, there is a video player showing a presentation slide titled 'Primary Health Care in Low Resource Settings: Mini Lecture: NCDs, Diabetes, Lifestyle' from the Sydney Medical School. On the right, there is a form to add a comment. The form includes a text area, a 'Media Comment' button, an 'Attach File' button, and a 'Save' button. A red arrow points to the 'Save' button.
